Chapparal Lanes is our Host for this Weekend (Saturday and Sunday)

In our return to Cal Bowl Lanes we had a big turnout of 624 bowlers over the 4 days. On Thursday we had 69 bowlers came out for the 1 squad, with cut scores of +50 for the men and +21 for women. On Friday we had 82 bowlers for the 3 squads with cut scores of +67 for the men and +90 for the women. On Saturday we had 186 bowlers with cut scores of +55 for the men and +41 for the women. And on Sunday we had 184 bowlers for the regular squad and 103 bowlers in our Re-Entry squad. The cut scores on Sunday were +52 for the men and +30 for women in the regular squads and +39 for the men and +26 for the women in the Re-Entry. The five Super Seniors added to the board this week were John Grieco (+57), Rey Josafat Sr (+56), Romy Cajucom (+50) for the men and Dianna Miller (+19) and Bobbie McCollum (+14) for the women. That would give us a total of 128 bowlers making it to the semi-finals this week.

During our Qualifying squads, the top qualifier for the Men was Kenny Kwan with a +192, and for the women it was Annaliza Argoncillo with a + 105. Each will get paid entries into a future regular ABTA event. Kenny, being the top seed would draw the Match Series worth $1018 this week and he drew a 461 that was bowled by Andy Yu and Victor Fabian, they would each get $509 dollars. For the 3-6-9 qualifying this week, the last person standing was Richard Samson and he would go for the $1,100 this week. He missed on the first shot, so he will get a $100 consolation. We will go for $1200 at Chapparal Lanes in our tournament this week.

In the doubles this week, we had a 279 groups get into the doubles, with 32 spots paid out. The top prize this week went to Michael Leung and Kenny Kwan with a 1502 for $220. In 2nd place were Victor Lee and Kenny Kwan at 1413 for $200. The low to cash was 1331.

In the semis we saw Godfrey Galsim lead the field with a + 110 to sit out and bowl for the title. Behind Godfry was a tie with Gina Velarde and Som Seng at +101, they would bowl a 9th and 10th frame roll-off to determine who would sit out the first round. Som would win the roll-off and get the 2nd seed position while Gina would be the 3rd seed and have to bowl starting in the first round. It took a + 28 for the women and a + 54 for the men to make the semi-finals this week.

This week, our top seed Godfrey Galsim had the honor of drawing the match game worth $3500. Godfrey drew a 192, and it was matched by 9 fine individuals. They were Anthony Dancel, Danny Eguilos, Michael Scimone, Ric Bisnar, Victor Hilvano, Vic Paolucci, Leo Silva, Freddie Catamisan and Matt Garcia. They would each get $388 dollars for that 192. Next week we will estimate our pot at $2500. This week we had 19 new bowlers join us, and 2 returning members. Let's welcome these new bowlers to the club, Chris Mallory, Antione Sye, Rosalina Gabriel, Victor Hilvano Jr, Virgil Hilvano, Dianna Miller, Stanley Potts Jr, George Alford Jr, Kathryn Gray, Thomas Gray, Christopher Taylor, Wendell Richardson, Michael Davis, Oliver Gruber, Violeta Arcelona, Michael Scimone, with Bill Ledoux and Edwin Barrett returning to the club.

This would bring us to our Match Play finals now with 30 bowlers taking the floor in our top 32 finals this week. In the first round, the 7 losers were Emma Soliman, Miriam Galluzzo, Sonia Coronado, Ada Wong Hum, Giang Hyunh, Roger Romero, Roland Bisnar, Ted Villaroman, Bryan Moore, Glen Dantes, Tony Tang, Vien Tran, Chris Abing, Freddie Catamisan and Tony Leogrande and they would receive checks of $200 each. In the second round, the losers were Cezar Marcella, Bernie Navarro, Matt Garcia, Mary Robles, Leo Silva, David Emrich, Ruthie Jones, Som Seng and each would get checks of $250. In the third round, the losers were Kmel Cunanan, Kenny Kwan, Vic Paolucci and Ginalynn Velarde and each would get checks for $325. In the 4th round we would get down to our final 4 bowlers (excluding the top seed). At this point, our horses would be paying anywhere from a low of $78 (James Borillo) to a high of $182 (Carlo Mansilungan) depending on who would win. In this round we saw Carlo Mansilungan (24th seed) bowling Ping Romero (17th seed) on lanes 43 and 44. In this match, Carlo would get the better of Ping in this match with a 231 to 194 finish. In the other match we saw Jun Contreras (4th seed) bowling James Borillo (14th seed) on lanes 39 and 40. In this match, James would get the better of Jun with a 253 to 201 final score. Juan and Ping were 4th and 5th getting checks for $650 each. Our semi-final match was set to be bowled on 31 and 32, we had our 14th and 24th seeds into the top 32 bowling each other. In our horses this week we would see James paying $78 and Carlo paying $182 if they win their match. In this match James and Carlo kept it close through the early parts of the match, but in the end it would be James that would hold on to win with a 209 to 183 score. Carlo would finish in 3rd place for $1500. This week the horses paid out $78 for all of you that bet on James making all the way to the title match.

The title game is set and would be bowled on lanes 35 and 36 this week. Godfrey being the top seed elected to have James start the match. In this match, James would start out slow opening the first two frames as Godfrey would stay clean through the first 7 frames. James would come back in the 3rd through 6th frames with strikes to bring him back into the match and Godfrey had strikes in the 5th through the 7th frames. After the 7th frame Godfrey would hold a slim 3 pin lead. In the 8th frame, James would mark while Godfrey would leave the 4-6-7 split. Both bowlers would mark in the 9th frame. That set us up for the big finish in the 10th frame. James held a slim 8 pin lead going into the 10th frame. Godfrey would need to mark to force James to do the same. But Godfrey threw a bad ball and got a 5 count on his first ball and then only get 4 in the fill ball. That would set up James just needing good count as he was on a strike. He would leave the 5-10 split but the count was good enough and he would win the match with a 218 to 208 for his 1st ABTA title. James would take home $6,000 for first place, he qualified during our Re-Entry squad and thus did not qualify for any of the squad bonus and he had no other bonus paid for. Godfrey would take home a nice $3000 check for his 2nd place finish.
